

Community Outreach and Education

The Center for Prevention and Counseling is the county's most comprehensive source of information in the fields of substance abuse, prevention and education.

CFPC offers a Community Outreach and Education Program. It provides individuals and community groups with education regarding drug use and its effects through presentations to any group upon request.

The Resource Center provides the latest information about alcohol, tobacco and other drugs; addictive behaviors and many other related topics.

Our Mission...

To promote hope, health and recovery among all people by creating an environment that is safe and free from the harmful effects of substance abuse and addiction.

RESOURCE CENTER

A PROGRAM OF THE CENTER FOR PREVENTION & COUNSELING

Goals

- To educate our community on the effects that drug use has on the family system and larger community structure;
- To empower those who might be at risk with the tools they need to effectively prevent drug use in their own families and communities, to recognize the signs and symptoms of drug use, and to teach them how to get help if they or someone they know needs it.

Presentations

The Center for Prevention and Counseling offers presentations on the following topics:

- Signs and Symptoms of Drug Use
- Identification and Referral
- Specific Referral Options
- Effects of Substance Abuse and Addiction on Families and Communities
- Effective Prevention Strategies and Tools for Parents and Professionals

Hosting a Presentation

Presentations are suitable for all group types, including but not limited to, parents, professionals, medical personnel, and service clubs. Presentations run from thirty minutes to three hours in length.

If you are interested in hosting a presentation for your group, or would simply like more information, please call the Center for Prevention and Counseling at 973-383-4787.
